Food

We have one fully equipped kitchen, an excellent in-house chef, and professional kitchen and waitress team. Our chef will be happy to work with you to create a specific menu if you require. Please see the eat page on www.akalondon.com for our current menu, and do let us know of any queries or special catering requests you may have.

Drink

AKA has a comprehensive range of premium spirits, liqueurs, continental beers, fine wines and champagnes, as well as a diverse cocktail list. Our back-bar is renowned to be one of the most extensive in London, with over 300 quality spirits and liqueurs from around the world.

Equipment Hire

We can arrange equipment hire for you at a preferential rate which will include delivery and collection to and from the venues. Please note that for safety reasons we do require that any equipment brought into the venues must be accompanied by a P.A.T. test certificate. If you have any queries please don't hesitate to ask.

Venue Dressing

We kindly ask that any branding / dressing requests are agreed with the Events Manager prior to the event. For safety reasons, dressing materials brought into the venues must be Fire Certificated Class A & O spread of flame. We do require written confirmation of this before the event please

In order to preserve the venues we also kindly ask that nothing is hung or taped on the walls.

We are more than happy for play lists and posters to be placed around the venue on the night; please ask the Duty Manager for direction with this.

Staging

In total AKA & The End has three 4 x 8 x 1 stages and three 4 x 4 x 3 podiums available for your use. If you have any specific staging requests please just ask in advance and we will do our best to help you out.

Sound and Light Engineers

We have professional In-house Sound and Light Engineers who will be happy to work with you to meet your specific requirements. We kindly ask that any sound check times are arranged with the Events Manager in advance.

Door Staff

If you require, we are happy to arrange experienced and friendly door staff, cashiers and hosts for you. Of course you can provide your own staff if you prefer; the Events Manager will be able to assist you with any queries.

AKA & THE END GENERAL INFORMATION

Security

We employ a licensed professional security company with both male and female security staff. CCTV cameras operate around the venues. For your own safety, searching is a condition of entry for any event which has a door charge.

Parking

There is an NCP car park located on Museum Street which is directly opposite the venues. There is no official parking on West Central Street; equipment can usually be dropped off quickly outside the venue but unfortunately this is not normally possible during evening trading hours. If you have a specific request please just let us know.

Load In

We are open to take deliveries from 1200 on weekdays and from 1800 on weekends. Deliveries can be taken via the entrance on Museum Street, the fire exits on West Central Street, or via AKA's main doors on West Central Street.

Load Out

We kindly ask that all Production is de-rigged and taken off the premises after the event. If the following day is a weekday, collection should be after 1100 and after 1800 on weekends. We are happy to accommodate you if you require a later pick up date, just let us know in advance.

Disabled Access

AKA offers disabled access and a disabled toilet. Disabled guests can access The End via AKA, however please note that there is a staircase which has 35 steps in total. By prior arrangement staff can be made available to help any disabled guests to move around the venues; we just ask that they are accompanied by at least one other guest.

Hire Fee

Contact the Events Manager with your detailed requirements and we will send you a quote & payment details.

VAT

17.5% will be included on all the service fees quoted. Food and beverage items are inclusive of VAT.

Special Requests

We want your event at AKA & The End to run as smoothly and successfully as possible, so please don't hesitate to ask at any point if you have any specific requirements or queries and we will do our best to help and accommodate you.

Enjoy your event!
